We, RUTHMANN GmbH & Co. KG, are a modern and innovative company that operates successfully both nationally and internationally in the field of access platforms and specialised commercial vehicles. The products are known worldwide under the brand names STEIGER® and CARGOLOADER®. Controlled by highly qualified management, we have established ourselves with the name RUTHMANN as a nationally and internationally competitive market leader in both segments.

Lightweight construction expertise: The use of high-strength, multi-folded, thin steel sheets in the carrier systems enables the basket to achieve working positions in the high-wide range despite the low overall truck weight.
