C.A.R.M.E.N. e.V., the Central Agricultural Raw Materials Marketing and Energy Network, has been the coordinating body for renewable raw materials in Bavaria since it was founded in 1992 and has been one of the three main pillars of the Competence Centre for Renewable Resources based in Straubing since 2001.

We offer advice, project support, knowledge transfer and public relations work in the field of renewable raw materials. Information and sources of supply for the use of natural fibres in NFRP lightweight components can be exchanged via a broad network of companies in all areas of the value chain.
