Trevira GmbH is an innovative European manufacturer of high-quality branded fibres and filament yarns for technical applications and hygiene products, home textiles, automotive interiors and functional clothing. Trevira GmbH is owned by the Thai company Indorama Ventures PCL. Trevira's filament division is part of the Indorama LifeStyle Europe organisation. The Trevira staple fibre division is part of Indorama Hygiene.

In the lightweight construction sector, Trevira adhesive fibres are used for fibre-reinforced materials and fibres for nonwovens and textiles. Trevira offers an innovation for applications in lightweight construction with biogenic and biodegradable polymer fibres. Trevira is also known worldwide for fibres and yarns for flame retardant polyester home textiles (Trevira CS), for fibres for hygiene products and technical nonwovens as well as for low-pill fibres for functional clothing.
